Erica J. Strausbaugh Culinary Arts/Food Science Scholarship Fund

Erica graduated from Tinora High School in 1997. She always had an interest and love of baking. In 1998 she attended Culinary Arts School at The Disney Institute and met and became connected with Johnson and Wales University. This launched her desire to attend that University and she graduated Magna Cum Laude in 2001. Tragically, she passed away less than three weeks after her graduation. The Strausbaugh Family established a scholarship fund in 2018 in her memory. An award of $1,000 will be awarded annually. There is a $500 renewable scholarship for the second year.

Eligible Applicants / Qualified Persons:

- Graduate from High School in Defiance County
- Age 25 years old or younger
- Intend to graduate with an Associates Degree in Culinary Arts, Food Science or Hospitality
- Note: If awarded, payment is made in December after completion of first semester
